

“Love one another, as I have loved you”

As Jesus has explained, there is no greater love than to lay one’s life for another, and this is what Jesus has done for you. Jesus paid the infinite offence of the sins of mankind with the infinite love of His Sacred Heart through the total suffering of His humanity. True love involves commitment, surrender and suffering. It ultimately involves dying to the self in order to live for Him. Love. “When you love others unconditionally, you are loving Me”.

Welcome back Fr. Mario, we hope you had success with your visa, also had a restful week. We missed you and are very glad to have you back with us.

This weekend the second collection will be for maintenance of both churches and hall. We appreciate all the generous help you give to the parish that helps with snow removal, lawn mowing and watering, fixing problems that occur. Thank you very much.

Our New Church and Social Hall has Begun! The steel frame, pre-engineered structure which will serve as a shell of our new church and social hall was scheduled to be delivered last Thursday and Friday at Lake Almanor. Erection will begin this Monday and should be completed in three or four weeks. Please keep our project in your prayers. Contact Fr. Larry at 283-0890 if you need more information. Thank you.

Upcoming Changes to Our Diocesan newspapers: Bishop Soto recently announced that, because of the recent difficult economic times, our diocese is no longer able to sustain the high cost involved in the publication of the Catholic Herald and El Heraldo. The diocese has found a Catholic publishing service which will produce a bi-monthly diocesan magazine at a substantial saving. In addition to the monetary savings, this new magazine will focus more on diocesan news, be available electronically, and will reach a wider audience. Bishop Soto added that they are also exploring alternative communication mediums in Spanish. The last edition will be in June and the new Catholic Herald magazine will be the Sept/Oct. issue which will come out in late August.

Our Lady of the Snows Altar Society will meet in the Rectory on May 12th at 1:00pm.
Ladies don't forget you are invited to the Chester's, meeting on May 4th at 11am at the Happy Gardens.

If you are sick or homebound the Santa Fe Communications, Inc – is graciously providing a “TV Mass” in Sacramento on KSPX at 9:30am. on Sunday Mornings. If you know of someone unable to come to Mass have them tune into the “Heart of the Nation” Sunday TV Mass on KSPX on Sunday mornings on one of the following televisions channels: Broadcast (Over –the-air):Channel 29,Comcast (Cable): Channel 11, and Dish (Satellite): Channel 29.

Christ the King Altar Society will meet on May 4th. This is a very important meeting to finalize plans for our annual Memorial Day Bake Sale. This is our big fund raiser that we have each year which enables us to do all the good things for our church community. We help MAMA's, Helping Hands, Graduates, First Communion and Confirmation children, also bought the Exit lights in Christ the King, Christmas & Feast Day banquets and keep our church a pleasant place for you to come and worship Our Lord. Meeting will be at the Happy Gardens at 11:00am. We will be calling ladies of the parish to bake goodies, so heat up your ovens. If you are new to the church community we invite the ladies to come to our meeting, maybe you would like to join.
