

First Sunday of Advent

Isaiah 63:16-17

1 Corinthians 1:3-9

November 30, 2008

Mark 13:33-37

“Stay awake because you don’t know when the time will come.”

Jesus wants no one to be lost; this is why He came personally to proclaim the message of salvation to everyone, so that no one would be lost. Jesus is telling us once more, repent, amend your life, be more aware of your reality as a spiritual being. Remember that the time will come when you will be called to enter into the spiritually realm for eternity and depending on how you lived your life, you will either be saved or condemned. It is never too late to reflect on your spiritual realities.

Thank you for your support of the Faith Formation Children's Bake Sale. They did very well and will help with their spring trip. Classes will be at the Wilkinson's house.

~~~~~
We have a gracious parishioner to help with our Mass music this morning, we are very grateful to have organ music to celebrate the Mass.

Please share your God given talent with us we would be very grateful. If you can play the organ, maybe a guitar, or keyboard that would be just fine. Please call the Priest, Fr. Bernardin or Fr. Larry for more information. Training can be offered to help understand the role of music in the Mass.

~~~~~
New offertory Envelopes for 2009. In the back of each church you will find the 2009 Offertory envelopes boxes. Please pick up your box, if your name is not there tell one of the ladies in the back and they will have your box for you next week. If your are a new parishioner and would like a box of offertory envelopes give one of the ladies your name and they will get you a new box. Please be sure to put your name and address on the envelopes for the first few time, this will assure hat you will be credited under the number for the rest of the year.
