

Jeremiah 17:5-8

1 Corinthians 15:12,16-20

Luke 6:17, 20-26

Be glad in that day and rejoice, for behold, your reward is great in Heaven.

For those who have more than they need, there is a constant opportunity to help the poor and those in need. Jesus loved the poor and outcast, because they are his disadvantaged children who in the end put all their trust in the Divine Providence. It is good to have but don't be too happy if you have more than you need and do nothing about your brother who is in need. The reward for the poor will be the riches of Heaven; however in contrast those who neglect charity won't have a treasure in their future life.
