

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 27, 2010

1 Kings 19: 19-16

Galatians 5:1,13-18

Luke 9:51-62

You don't know of what spirit your are

Great is the Powers of God and greatly blessed are those have received it. Moses commanded the sea to open and it obeyed, the prophet Elijah commanded the heavens to pour down rain and they obeyed. The power of God is at home in the heats of the humble. It is the great power of faith that is given to those who puts all their trust in God. He who desires God must follow God but the price you have to pay is detachment from the world and from Gods self love.

Please join us this week end of June 26-27 to hear Fr. Gus Gordon speak at all Masses about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Father Gordon will share what he has witnessed about Food for Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel to love one another. Father Gordon was ordained in 1969 and belongs to the Archdiocese of Castries in St. Lucia. He worked with a hands-on ministry in Alabama and has preached on behalf of Food for the Poor for 17 years. Please, let us welcome him to our parish. Visit www.foodforthe poor.org. for more information.
